Supporting young talent in the performing, visual, and literary arts since 1944

CHAPTER RESPONSIBILITIES 2024

The Naomi Rabb Winston Scholarship in Two-Dimensional Art was established to give talented young artists educational opportunities in preparation for careers in art.

Each packet of information includes: applicant requirements and eligibility information, an application form, directions for judging, chapter and national deadlines, contact information for each NSAL chapter and a list of art institutions where applicants may choose to study.

The packets can be printed from the NSAL website: arts-nsal.org

Participating NSAL Chapters should:

1. Distribute scholarship information to colleges, universities, high schools and private teachers. Publicize the availability of the scholarship through local media and/or social networks.
2. Receive application forms and accompanying materials by February 1, 2024. Please be aware that you may receive applications from artists who do not have a local chapter and have found your chapter to be nearest their geographical location. You should accept their applications.

Check that the applications are complete and include copies of proof of citizenship and the flash drive containing their work is complete. ie contains correct amount of images and that they are labeled as instructed in artist's application form.

3. Select competent judges. Chapter members and advisers with a specialty in art may serve as judges.
4. Submit the application of up to three finalists selected by the judges. A $15 check must be included for 1 application, $30 for 2, $45 for 3 applications made out to National Society of Arts and Letters (with Winston Art on memo line).
5. Send applications with flash drives and other required information to the National Winston Art Chair before the March 1, 2024 deadline.

Mail them to Twyla Martins, 540 Maryland Ave., Lexington, KY 40508 (please do not make submissions electronically)

For questions, call Twyla Martins at 859-396-3842 or Norman Brown 412-881-3188
