Naomi Rabb Winston Scholarship in
Two-Dimensional Art
$12,000 in Scholarships

Artwork by Julia Gould

2019 scholarship recipient – Julia Gould, 19, Washington, D, C. Chapter
$2,000 to study Art History at the Summer Intensive Program,
Maryland Institute College of Art.

Sponsored by
The National Society of Arts and Letters

Applications due to Chapters by
February 1, 2020

Julia Gould was born in Baltimore, Maryland, 1999. She attended George Washington Carver for Art and Technology for high school, and is a junior at Maryland Institute College of Art. Julia is pursuing a Bachelors of Fine Art in painting, with a literature minor, and a concentration in printmaking. Her work is largely focused on personal narrative and portraiture. Her work continues the traditions of portraiture, in that she paints things she thinks are important and memorable. Through personal narrative she explores her experiences and uses metaphor as a tool to share her values. Her paintings are often a combination of observed forms and imagined content, which are used to create her narrative. The work is often focused on a female protagonist, or the presence of a female perspective. On a technical level, this is informed by her use of color, her compositional decisions, and her paint application.

An annual scholarship in honor of the late Naomi Rabb Winston, a distinguished artist and mother of Shirley Rabb Winston who endowed the Winston Scholarships, is available through the National Society of Arts and Letters to visual artists ages 16 to 22. Applicants must demonstrate exceptional talent and promise of future success.

The scholarship funds are for private study, special training or personal advancement in the applicants' chosen art fields. The funds can be used for college tuition and required art supplies, but not for housing, travel or personal expenses.

Scholarship funds are sent to the institution, teacher or program selected by the scholarship recipient. Scholarship recipients have 15 months to use the funds.
